WHEREAS, Plumas County is recovering from the Dixie Fire and many in our region are living in travel trailers and temporary housing through December 31, 2024 due to the loss of 700 homes in our county of 19,915 people. People living in these and other temporary structures are at more risk due to snow loads and freezing conditions; and

WHEREAS, per historical data, areas of Plumas County are close to their max snow loads. Some areas are at or near thresholds for snow load. The average snow load for Almanor Basin is 100 lbs per cubic square foot, some of the last totals are at approximately 80-100 lbs.; and

WHEREAS, Plumas County's only incorporated city had a boil-water-only alert due to freezing temperatures and issues with the water system, affecting 4,500 people; and

WHEREAS, staffing is inadequate to cope with removal of the heavy snowfall. Streets remain unplowed due to shortages of essential Public Works employees, causing impacts to essential government services and a hazard for essential emergency first responders; and

WHEREAS, due to the significant accumulation of snow from the blizzard and other storms, the predicted rain storms may result in significant flooding; and

WHEREAS, schools have seen several days of closure as have County offices due to hazardous travel conditions in the Sierra region; and

WHEREAS, if there were a need for a shelter to open, Plumas residents could not get to it due to snow conditions, unplowed roads and projected heavy snow and rainfall rates.
