State Clearinghouse, Office of Planning and Research

From:

Peninsula Fire Protection District
801 Golf Club Road
Lake Almanor, CA 96137

Project Location:

Chester, Plumas County, California

Description of Nature, Purpose, and Beneficiaries of Project:

The proposed project involves the annexation of the unincorporated community of Chester into the Peninsula Fire Protection District (PFPD). The annexation is intended to extend fire protection and emergency medical services to Chester residents, ensuring consistent service levels within the area. The beneficiaries of the project are the residents and property owners within the proposed annexation area.

Name of Public Agency Approving Project:

Peninsula Fire Protection District

Name of Person or Agency Carrying Out Project:

Peninsula Fire Protection District

Exempt Status:

☒ Categorical Exemption (CEQA Guidelines §15319 - Annexations of Existing Facilities and Lots for Exempt Facilities)

☐ Statutory Exemption (specify code section):

☐ Other Exemption (specify):

Reasons Why Project is Exempt:

The project is categorically exempt under CEQA Guidelines Section 15319 (Annexations of Existing Facilities and Lots for Exempt Facilities). The annexation involves an area containing existing public or private structures developed to the density allowed by the current zoning, with no physical changes proposed. Additionally:

1. The project does not involve any physical alteration to the environment, construction, or change in land use.
2. The area is already developed and is currently receiving de facto fire protection services from PFPD under mutual aid agreements.
3. The annexation ensures alignment of service responsibilities without environmental impact.
4. No unusual circumstances exist that would trigger a significant environmental effect under CEQA Guidelines §15300.2.
