PG&E Vulnerable Customer Status

What is the PG&E Vulnerable Customer Program?

The Vulnerable Customer Program was designed to help address the needs of our customers whose lives or health would be at risk should their electric service be disconnected.

Anyone who depends on medications that need refrigeration or medical devices that require power, should apply and register any medical related energy needs!

Visit our PG&E Vulnerable Customer Program page for more information, including the application to apply for this program and financial assistance programs.

To apply, call

1-800-743-5000 or www.pge.com/medicalbaseline

Examples of Qualifying Medical Conditions and Devices:

- Multiple Sclerosis
- Asthma/Sleep Apnea
- Special Heating/Cooling Needs
- Respirators
- Motorized Wheelchairs
- IPPB/CPAP Machines
- Hemodialysis Machines

For a complete list of qualifying medical conditions and devices, visit pge.com/medicalbaseline or call 1-800-743-5000.

Once enrolled, Vulnerable Customer Status remains on an account for 90 days. The applicant can resubmit a program application to apply for a one-year extension beyond the 90 days.

SPOTLIGHT

SPOTLIGHT: Lori Pini, Operation of Emergency Services

Lori Pini
Plumas County Office of Emergency Services Manager

Lori Pini has been the Office of Emergency Services Manager for Plumas County for this past year.

Personal Info: Lori is from Quincy, CA. Lori enjoys going fishing with her son, gardening, and cooking.

Office of Emergency Services: As the Manager for OES, Lori plans for, responds to, and assists with recovery from natural and human-caused disasters. She continually coordinates with local government partners and our Volunteer Organizations Active in Disaster. You will find Lori in our Emergency Operations Center during a disaster, bringing in needed resources.

Lori takes the safety of Plumas County residents seriously, especially those who require additional assistance. Lori's goal is to ensure all Plumas County residents know what to do in an emergency and take the steps to prepare.

Thank you Lori Pini for all you do for the AFN Committee & Community!
